Outside of meetings, the PAC's communication among its members is done primarily by email. It is helpful if members can send and receive email and manage attachments.

The PAC's business year coincides with the calendar year. If your application is approved, your membership will extend through the end of the current calendar year.

The members of the PAC will vote on your application by email within 20 days of receiving the application.

The PAC values certain skills and experience. Please check all that apply.
