

Democratic Club of Riderwood Presents

Celebrating 250 Years of our Declaration of Independence

A Reading and Conversation

Join the Democratic Club to celebrate 250 years since the signing of our Declaration of Independence. During this session, members of the club will read our founding document that outlines the principles of our new nation and our right to oppose those who try to strip away our 'unalienable rights,' including "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Readers include Lee Finney, Stephen Coleman, Trudy Downs, Patric O'Brien, Anne Riley and Jill Shindelman, with Andy Schmookler moderating a thought-provoking discussion with the audience of the meaning of our Declaration in today's America.
